

Cinnamon Cove 5.0 stars

My mother in law has been living at Cinnamon Cove for well over a year, and couldn't be happier. She loves the staff, the owners, the food as well as the overall care she receives.

My husband and I are able to sleep nights because we absolutely know that if anything happens to her or at the residence, one of the staff will contact us immediately. Mom has fallen several times and as she wasn't hurt, the staff took care of her very well.

Mom feels like everyone there treats her like a little princess!

Overall, we have had nothing but a great experience with Cinnamon Cove, and were fortunate to be able to have her there.
