Your Review: As they say, this facility runs a tight ship, over some time I have notice many situations, the facility is very clean. The owner's are on board many days during the week along with some weekends. The owner's and Staff know the resident's very well as it is a small facility, so if someone is having an off day they will pick up on this situation and try to correct it quickly. The owner's and Staff are very friendly, easy to talk to. Food and meals looked good, I have seen them go above and beyond to accomadate with the food for the Resident's. I feel there could be more activities, for example, sing along's
