Hello,

You've received a new review on Caring.com:

Posted by Ann867701 on 07/02/16

I am a friend or relative of a resident (5 / 5 Stars)

Cinnamon Cove feels good to us. It is very clean, and the residents all seem to be pretty happy. That's what we like about it. There aren't any up-charges. My mom is quite happy there. The place is very comfortable and very home-like. The assistants are very attentive to the patients. It's like a home care. They sit around and watch TV in a group and have different areas where they can sit. They have a reading room, or they can go outside on the patio. Everybody moves about freely and there's always someone there if they need something. Everyone is very clean-looking. Mom just had a haircut today, and she is very happy with it. They seem to be enjoying the food there.
